Carpenter-Carse Library Donations Policy

Gifts in kind are non-monetary items of tangible personal property such as books, DVD's, art, collectables, equipment, furniture, etc. Materials will only be accepted on the condition that the Library Director (or designee) has the authority to make whatever disposition of the material he or she deems advisable. The library does not establish a monetary value for gifts in kind, nor will receipts be provided for donors of gifts in kind, except in situations where the Library Director (or designee) sees exceptional value in the item(s) donated.

The Library Director (or designee) will review and consider all gifts to determine if they fit with the Library's mission, goals, and current needs. The Library has the right to decline any gift.
